

ARTIST ASSOCIATION OF CENTRAL ALABAMA (AACA)

March General Meeting

March 16, 2022

1. Meeting Opened with prayer by our President, Diane Hough
2. Members Present: Diane Hough, Sean Burnley, June Dean, Rebecca Mitchell, Janet Gogan and Guest: Janet Gogan's sister
3. Treasurers Report: Treasurer, Rebecca Mitchell reported there was no activity during the period of February 16, 2022 to March 15, 2022. The check written to Senior 50+ in appreciation of use of the Center remains uncashed. There is a balance available for use in the amount of $3,359.21 Ms. Mitchell is going to verify the current membership list and send it out.
4. Chamber of Commerce Bill received in the amount of $105.00. Diane Hough will call and check to see what we get out of being a chamber member. She will report her findings back to the board and the board will vote by email for AACA to remain a member.
5. June Dean and Janet Gogan reported a lunch with Nancy Scott, a long time and valued member of AACA who is not longer able to participate with the club often. They reported she is well and truly enjoyed the lunch.
6. Comer Museum—The club will be displaying their art at Comer Museum the month of June. All members are invited to contribute their art for display. Please let us know how many pieces you will have to display
Set up at the museum is June 1
Take down the exhibits is the last day of June
Meet the Artist is Thursday June 16. Please bring finger foods
7. Scotts Garden - The date has been set for the club to visit Scotts Garden on April 28. An email has already been sent with these details.
8. Diane Hough will have the Artist Spotlight for the Month on our website. Please Sean Burnley know if you would like to have your work spotlighted.